Subject Line: Thank you for meeting with Shot@Life about global childhood vaccines

Dear _____,

Thank you for meeting with us to discuss Shot@Life and the importance of continued U.S. government investment in global child vaccination programs. Vaccines are one of the most effective public health interventions available, and progress over the past 30 years has dramatically decreased preventable child death and disability. We stand on the brink of eradicating polio, for instance, and longstanding U.S. investments in global immunization have established strong global health infrastructure that will be essential to stopping pandemics like COVID-19. We must continue to invest in global vaccination programs that save lives and protect global health security, allowing us to stop diseases at their source, before they become difficult and costly to contain.

As discussed in our meeting, our Fiscal Year 2022 funding asks include:

- $290 million for Gavi, the Vaccine Alliance
- $134 million for UNICEF
- $211.2 million for CDC global polio eradication programs
- $60 million for CDC measles elimination activities
- $65 million for USAID polio eradication efforts

I appreciate you taking the time to talk with us. If you have any follow-up questions, please feel free to reach out at any time. I am happy to be a resource in the future.

Sincerely,
